Audio files of these tunes are available from Australian Traditional Music Tunes: www.bushtraditions.wiki
You can download them as MP3 files. Printing is more complex; you need software on your computer that reads ABC format. Download the ABC files from the Wiki and use them to print from your computer.

This is the tenth in a series of books prepared for sessions run at the National Folk Festival, some 620 tunes in all. Other books were prepared in 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015 & 2016. All books are available for purchase via the Bush Traditions Website: www.bushtraditions.org/publications.htm.

Bush Traditions Wiki currently holds some 470 tunes, as ABC and MP3 files. All tunes will appear in the Wiki as time permits.
