

PLEASE RETURN TO
WAL (0407 86 9696)
AT VFMC

COPY 1

2

1

Contents

	PAGE
I. A SPRING SONG
The world 'as got me snouted jist a treat; . . .	13
II. THE INTRO
'Er name's Doreen . . . Well, spare me bloomin' days! . . .	19
III. THE STOUSH O' DAY
Ar, these is 'appy days! An' 'ow they've flown— . . .	27
IV. DOREEN
"I wish't yeh meant it, Bill." Oh, 'ow me 'cart . . .	33
V. THE PLAY
"Wot's in a name?" she sez . . . An' then she sighs, . . .	39
VI. THE STROR 'AT COOT
Ar, wimmin! Wot a blinded fool I've been! . . .	47
VII. THE SIREN
She sung a song, an' I sat silent there, . . .	55

CONTENTS

	PAGE
VIII. MAR
"Er pore dear Par," she sez, "'e kept a store"; . . .	63
IX. PILOT COVE
"Young friend," 'e sez . . . Young friend! Well, spare me days! . . .	71
X. HITCHED
"An'—wilt—yeh—take—this—woman—fer —to—be— . . .	77
XI. BEEF TEA
She never magged; she never said no word; . . .	85
XII. UNCLE JIM
"I got no time fer wasters, lad," sez 'e, . . .	93
XIII. THE KID
My son! . . . Them words, jist like a blessed song, . . .	101
XIV. THE MOOCH O' LIFE
This ev'nin' I was sittin' wiv Doreen, . . .	111
THE GLOSSARY	115