

Around the

B · O · R · E · E · L · O · G

A · N · D · O · T · H · E · R · V · E · R · S · E · S

JOHN O'BRIEN

Percy Lindsay

CONTENTS

AROUND THE BOREE LOG	1
Oh, stick me in the old caboose this night of wind and rain, . . .
CALLING TO ME	3
Through the hush of my heart in the spell of its dreaming . . .
THE LITTLE IRISH MOTHER	4
Have you seen the tidy cottage in the straggling, dusty street, . . .
ONE BY ONE	7
With trust in God and her good man . . .
TEN LITTLE STEPS AND STAIRS	9
There were ten little Steps and Stairs, . . .
THE TRIMMIN'S ON THE ROSARY	10
Ah, the memories that find me now my hair is turning gray, . . .
THE BIRDS WILL SING AGAIN	14
She saw The Helper standing near . . .
THE OLD BUSH SCHOOL	16
'Tis a queer, old battered landmark that belongs to other years; . . .
SIX BROWN BOXER HATS	20
The hawker with his tilted cart pulled up beside the fence, . . .

(incomplete)