

THE ELECTRIC MUSE

The Story of Folk into Rock

PLEASE RETURN TO
WAL (0407 86 9696)
AT VFMC

Dave Laing & Karl Dallas
Robin Denselow & Robert Shelton

METHUEN
PAPERBACKS

Contents

Introduction	Dave Laing	1
One: Something Happened in America	Robert Shelton	7
Recording in the Field		11
The Seeger Called Pete		14
The Two-Headed Revival		15
The Hootenanny Show		18
The Grass Roots of Tradition: The Blues		20
The Bluegrass Grows All Around		25
Coffeehouses and Festivals		31
Songs of Praise and Freedom		33
The Recurring Revival		40
[Discography]		43
Two: Troubadours and Stars	Dave Laing	45
Folk and the Avalon Factor		46
Folk as a Way of Life		48
Troubadours on Tin Pan Alley		53

The Road to Yasgur's Farm	60
Coming Down With Kinney	66
Feel Like Going Home	71
New Morning?	78
[Discography]	81
Three: The Roots of Tradition	Karl Dallas 83
Realities of the Revival	83
The Three Strains	95
Collection: Apollo Dissects Dionysus	105
The Instruments of Tradition	109
Dionysus Reborn	113
Folk, Pop and the Electric Aesthetic	119
[Discography]	134
Four: Folk-Rock in Britain	Robin Denselow 137
A Tale of Two Cultures	137
Beginnings: Skiffle and Dem East Croydon Blues	140
Folk Clubs, Up and Down	142
Folk Blues in Greek Street: Graham Meets Collins	144
Folk Blues 2: Jansch to Grossman	147
Poets and One-Man Bands	150
Crazy British Individualists: Harper	152
Crazy British Individualists 2: The String Band	154
Folk Rock in Muswell Hill	157
Steeleye: The First Folk Supergroup	163
Fairport Connections: Sandy	167
Fairport Connections: Tyger	168
The Celtic Invasion	170
The New St George: More Fairport Connections	171
So What?	174
Somewhat Post Script	174
[Discography]	175